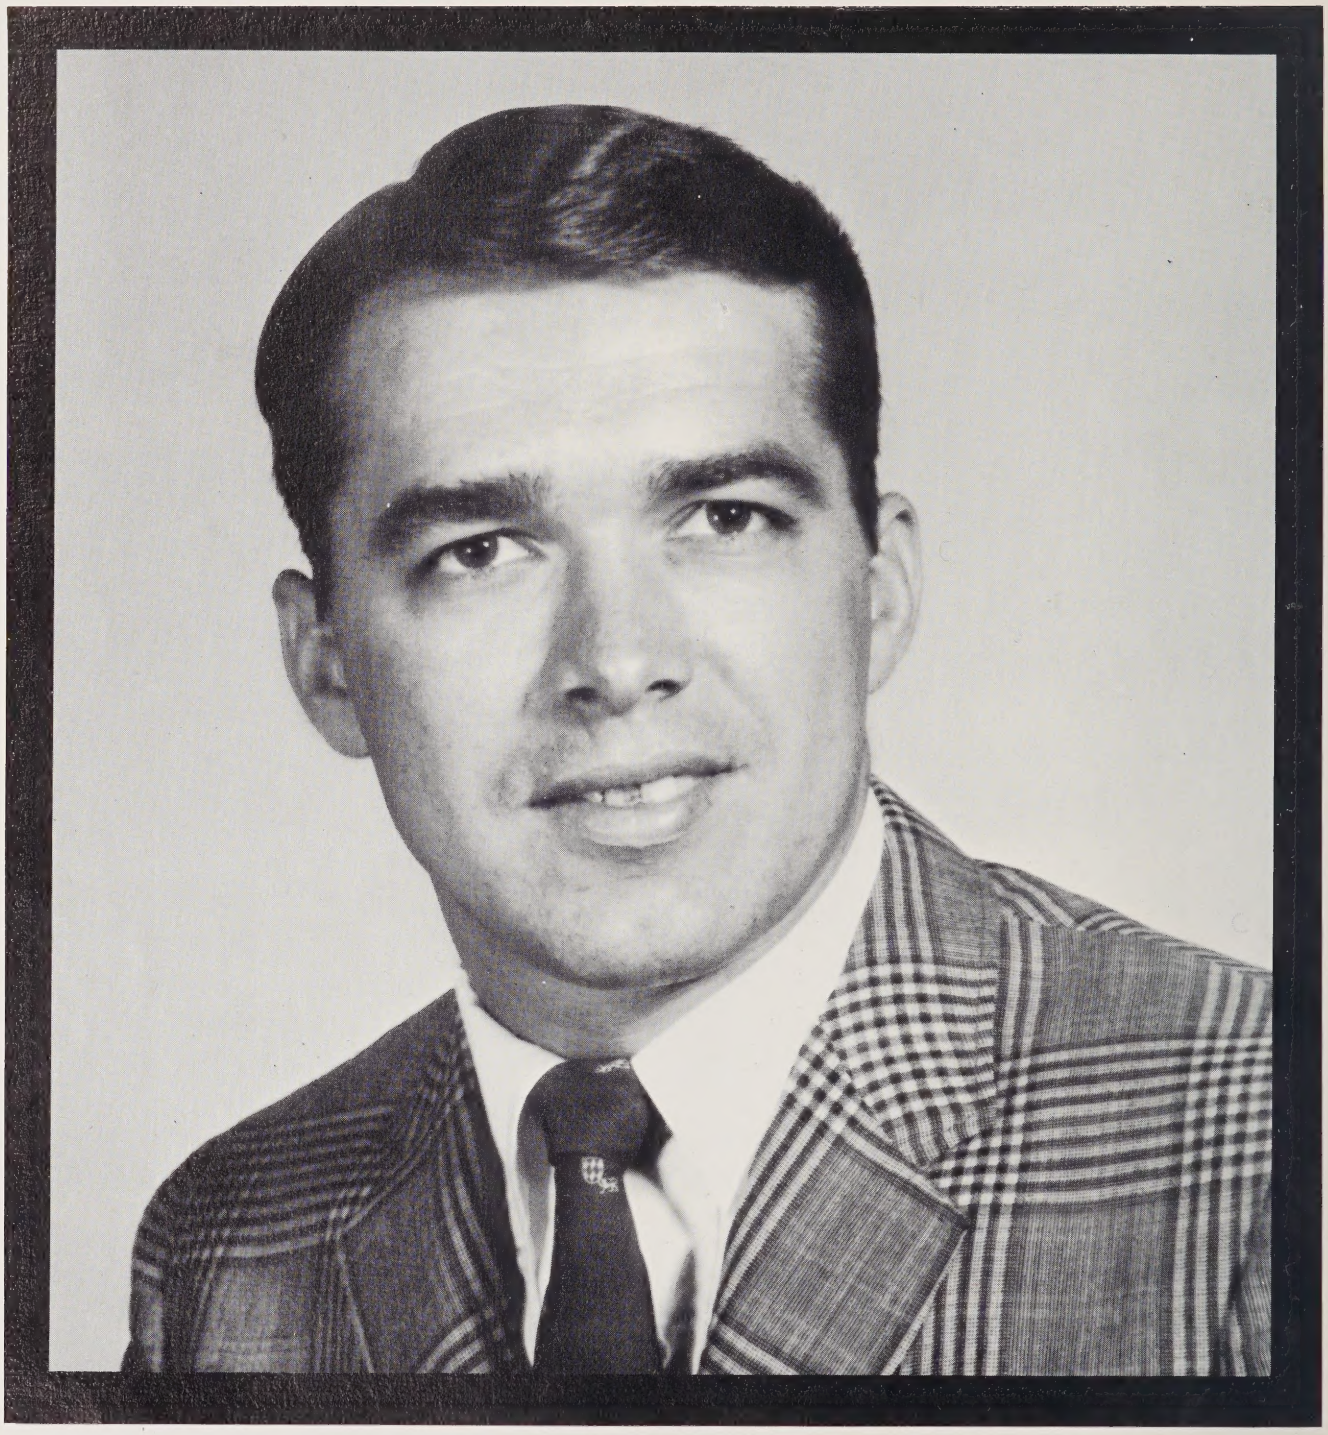
SCHOOL BUS

Dedication



We, the Demon's Diary Staff of Deep River School, proudly dedicate the 1968 edition of the annual to a teacher whom all of us, and the rest of the student body, have come to respect and admire. Since this teacher came to Deep River, the students have seemed to find a teacher whom they can call "one of the gang". This member of the faculty has been a friend as well as an instructor to each of the students. Still, the alert mind and quick tongue possessed by this teacher have put some of us in uncomfortable situations at times. In spite of this, all of us continue to respect and obey him.

We have dedicated this annual to this teacher because we feel that he has contributed much to this school in several fields. He has caused his students to become more interested in the courses he teaches and has endeavoured to challange his students to higher goals in life. He has helped build up the school spirit at Deep River and has worked dilligently with the athletic teams.

For these reasons, and many more, we, the Demon's Diary Staff, do gratefully and happily dedicate this year's annual to you, Mr. Bill Turner.

Administration

Mr. Harold Wood, Principal

To The Seniors:

The greatest job of every generation is to raise a better generation.

You have spent some twelve years in an effort to acquire knowledge and to become better. To this knowledge, strive to add wisdom.

There will be many problems facing you in adulthood. You will be a part of the problem or a part of the answer.

In an effort to realize the most from life, remember:

"Your life is like a garden where weeds and flowers grow;
What you allow determines how life brings forth weal or woe."

My best wishes and highest expectancies go with each of you into your future.

Prophecy

The sandman visited me last night. Boy! What a dream! In my reverie, I was taken back to my high school days. Ten years is a long time. The halls were quiet at "ole DRS". Suddenly, they came alive with all my old friends. Then, I awoke! Looking back on those years, my friends have done fairly well for themselves.

Donnie Thomas is the owner of a Palimino Stud Farm. Some of the finest horses in the world come from Donnie's stock.
Carolyn Creech has made it to the top. She is now the art director at the New York Art Institution. She's single, and still looking.
Kathy Moore is still happily married to Wayne and they have four children and are the managers of "The Little Mint".
Beverly Gregson has finally hooked Amos. They have seven boys. She owns her own beauty shop.
Delores Huddleston still isn't married. She seems to be doing very well as the first grade teacher at Deep River School.
Barbara High is happily married and stays at home with her six children.
Judy Garner is an English Teacher at Sanford Central High. She's turned out to be very much like the one we had at Deep River.
Nancy Wicker is finally a dental assistant in New York. You should see the dentist she assists.
Donna Stackpole is teaching Physical Education at Carolina. Boy, did she hate it at Deep River. She's single and as energetic as ever.
Mike Thomas owns a group of chain stores across the United States. He works late at night teaching new cashiers the trade.
Shirley Freeman is a nurse at General Hospital. She finally achieved her goal. She's married and is the mother of three, all girls.
Donna McBryde is now very happily married to Richard. They have six boys. Donna is a part-time hairdresser.
Freddie Sloan owns Sloan's Stables. He has a very good stock of race horses and maybe even a Kentucky Derby winner.
Dorothy Holt Thomas is still married to Wayne. Dot stays home with the children while Wayne is serving as a General in the army.
Roman Lyczkowski is writing for Sports Illustrated. He won a prize for his coverage of the 1976 Olympic Games.
Marsha Luxton is now a noted journalist in Los Angeles. She's married and the mother of a little boy.
Steve Thomas is a professor at Yale. He teaches chemistry to advanced students.
Stuart Ruth has become a preacher. Can you believe? His church is filled each Sunday.
Eddie Pilson is now head man at Sunoco. He should be, he bought out the Kelly Boys.
Gary Wicker is the owner of Lee Hardware. He has three other businesses in Sanford, and the money is pouring in.
Charlie Poindexter is the agriculture teacher at Deep River. Mr. Ragan finally retired after many years of service.
Gordon Harton is a star basketball player at Duke. He's been in college for eight years, just to play ball.
Roger Jackson now owns a large well-drilling company that serves the nation. He is happily married and has two children.
Oops! I had better get back to my job! This journalizing is so tiresome at times.

Prophetess:
Joyce Wilmoth

Last Will and Testament

Being of sound mind and body, we, the Class of 1968, do will and bequeath the following:

I, Carolyn Creech, do leave my title "Miss Athletic Sweetheart" to anyone lucky enough to win, my superlative "Miss Senior Class" to Gail McNeill, and all my memories I'll keep forever.

I, Roman Lyczkowski, do leave everthing I have to Sammy Gillis; I owe him about that much.

I, Eddie Pilson, do leave my position at second base to Garry Ammons, and my good looks to Mrs. Harkey.

I, Stuart Ruth, do leave only the memory of me in the minds of my fear-stricken teachers.

I, Donna Stackpole, do leave my dark hair to Mrs. Harkey, and all the memories I'll keep forever.

I, Marsha Luxton, do leave my superlative "Most Likely To Succeed" to Debra Wicker, my ability to pass test to Roger Thomas, and my position as Co-editor of the annual to anyone who likes tired feet and big headaches.

I, Donnie Thomas, do leave my position on the basketball team to my brother Roger.

I, Dolores Huddleston, do leave my ability to finish high school to the Freshman Class, and my blonde hair to anyone who would like to find out if, "Blondes have more fun".

I, Roger Jackson, do leave—ain't that enough??

I, Donna McBryde, do leave my superlative "Most Athletic" to my brother Russell, and my ability to get along with Mrs. Shaver to Martha Luck.

I, Charlie Poindexter, do leave my ability to chase Wanda to a quiet boy.

I, Freddie Sloan, do leave my superlative "Friendliest" to Brent Smith, and my bus to anyone who can handle it.

I, Kathy Moore, do leave my quiet ways to my niece Faye, and my ability to stay out of trouble to anyone sly enough not to get caught.

I, Beverly Brown, do leave my ability to get along with the teachers and principals to my younger brother Douglas because he really needs it, and my bus I gladly give to my younger sister Bonnie, if she can handle it.

I, Judy Garner, do leave my position as bus monitor to my sister Shirley, and my ability to get along with others I'll keep.

I, Shirley Freeman, do leave my blonde hair to Mr. Turner and hope that he has more fun with it than I did.

I, Barbara High, do leave my superlative "Most Talkative" to Gail McNeill, and my ability to get through school to all the sophomore boys and my good times at Deep River to Robert and Susan.

I, Nancy Wicker, do leave my superlative "Neatest" to my cousin Randy and my ability to get along with a certain history teacher to anyone who needs it.

I, Gary Wicker, do leave my '57 "Stumper Jumper" to anyone who thinks that he can hold her in the road.

I, Mike Thomas, do leave my ability to be happy and to get along with people to everyone.

I, Gordon Harton, do leave my shooting right arm to Jerry Campbell, and my ability to have fun to everyone at "ole DR".

I, Joyce Wilmoth, do leave my superlative "Wittiest" to Jane Porter, my height to Ann Moore, and Paul I'll keep forever.
